(1) The big picture

NO HATE SPEECH MOVEMENT

On 30 September the PACE adopted Recommendation 2052 in which it asks the Committee of Ministers to, inter alia, support the initiative by the youth campaign and declare the day of the terrorist attack in Oslo and at Utøya, 22 July, the European Day for Victims of Hate Crime.

The NHSM Petition to make 22 July European Day for Victims of Hate Crime has now been signed by 3677 people. We encourage more signatures in order to support this Recommendation - the more people sign, the better chances of succeeding in obtaining the declaration by the Committee of Ministers. Have you invited your colleagues to sign it?

The President of the Assembly, Anne Brasseur, also endorsed the proposal of the Speaker of the Norwegian parliament Olemic Thommessen for all parliaments to support this initiative. In this context, a “Living Library” was inaugurated on 30 September in the presence of PACE President Anne Brasseur, the Speaker of the Norwegian Parliament Olemic Thommessen and CoE Secretary General Thorbjørn Jagland.

For two days, the PACE parliamentarians could borrow a “book” for 20 minutes, outside the Hemicycle where the PACE autumn session took place, with the difference that these books were people, some of whom have faced discrimination and hate in their lives, e.g. refugees and Roma. National Campaign Coordinator from Norway, Eirik Rise, was one of the books. Another book was Lina “the young muslim”. And yet others were those who, in the past, had been part of Neo Nazi groups and had propagated discrimination but are now reformed Podcast – Neo-Nazism and me. [Photos]

The FORUM of the Movement was held on 1-5 October in Gabala, Azerbaijan. The 250 participants shared experiences and challenges in campaigning for human rights online and prepared plans and proposals for the remaining 6 months of the campaign. A Message from the Forum to the Council of Europe sums up the expectations placed by participants – activists, national coordinators and partners – on the Council of Europe and the member states to respond to the challenges and issues faced by the campaign. The Forum was held in the framework of the Azerbaijan chairmanship of the Committee of Ministers and co-organised with the Ministry of Youth and Sport of Azerbaijan, in close cooperation with the National Assembly of Youth Organisations of the Republic of Azerbaijan. Many thanks to the Ministry of Youth and Sport for their unconditional support to the Forum and kind hospitality in Gabala. The outcomes of the Forum will be presented during the next CMJ meeting in November.

The No Hate Ninjas Poster Exhibition (an exhibition of posters, designed by a team of activists, designers and programmers) was opened on 19 September at the European Youth Centre Budapest.

A training course for trainers on combating hate speech online will be held in Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgium from 15 to 19 October. The course will be based on Connexions, the French version of Bookmarks.

The NHSM will also have a stand at the next session of the Congress – from 14 – 16 October.

The Follow up Group on the NHSM will meet in Strasbourg from 23 – 25 October.

September 21 was European Action Day! Interesting blog posts dedicated to the topic of religious intolerance and islamophobia, as well as several reports of discriminatory internet pages are available on the NHSM website.

A seminar about educational responses to Islamophobia in Europe was organised in the EYCB on 16-20 September in cooperation with the OSCE/ODIHR.

Forthcoming European Action Days/Weeks are:

9 November – Combating Fascism and Antisemitism
8 - 15 December – Human Rights Week

Country action:

- A new No Hate Speech Movement campaign was officially launched in Banja Luka, Republic of Srpska on 22 August. The launching day started with workshops about hate speech for 60 young people and finished with a press conference where the Minister of Family, Youth and Sport, Nada Tesanovic and the Campaign Coordinator, Branka Malesevic presented the Campaign.

- On 25-27 September a workshop "Free to express me - combating homophobic and transphobic hate speech" was held in Tirana, Albania by the BABELNOR network consisting of 23 LGBTQ youth-organisations from the Nordic countries, Ukraine, Belarus and the Balkans. The workshop issued a joint support statement for Belgrade pride with the message "Pride for everyone" on 27 September and on the 28th a successful and near to incident free pride march was held in Serbia first time ever.

- The NGO "Youth Space" organised a national training course on Human Rights Education in Georgia, Bakuriani, from 9 to 14 September. The group of 20 participants, besides active and constructive discussions when exploring the topics of Human Rights and HRE in their local context, got also acquainted with the No Hate Speech Movement and its instrument to report hate speech online. Follow-up activities are now being implemented by the group with the use of Compass, Compasito and Bookmarks.

- On 24 September the No Hate Speech Movement Ireland was formally launched.

- The Mexican No Hate Speech Movement campaign "Sintags" was launched on 27 September.

- The Bodossaki Foundation, will launch a roadshow campaign in the autumn around Greece.

The Human Dimension Implementation meeting of the OSCE (Warsaw, 22 September – 3 October) included a round table “Combating hate speech online” as a side event. The NHSM campaign coordinators from Poland and Latvia were part of the panel.

The state of play of the national campaign committees can be found and checked on the website and on the new map of national campaign coordinators. The second meeting of National Campaign co-ordinators will be held in Warsaw on 10 and 11 November.

A campaign newsletter is produced twice a month. Please send your contributions to: youth.nohatespeech@coe.int. You can also subscribe to the newsletter by joining the movement or clicking “sign up to our newsletter” in www.nohatespeechmovement.org.

Say it with a balloon: Real red heart-shaped No Hate Balloons are now available. Ideal for public events (especially with children!) – not suitable for Valentine’s Day (so, order them now!). Other campaign material – videos, templates for posters and the brochure presentation can be downloaded from www.coe.int/youthcampaign. Also: Detailed brochure; Flyer; Poster.

Have you joined the official online Campaign? Please check out the site. You are also encouraged to “like” our campaign on Facebook (we now have over 16,400 “likes”) and to follow the campaign on Twitter [#nohatespeech] where our followers have once again increased to over 14700.

Hate speech, as defined by the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe, covers all forms of expression which spread, incite, promote or justify racial hatred, xenophobia, antisemitism or other forms of hatred based on intolerance, including: intolerance expressed by aggressive nationalism and ethnocentrism, discrimination and hostility against minorities, migrants and people of immigrant origin. For the purpose of the campaign, other forms of discrimination and prejudice, such as anti-gypsyism, christianophobia, islamophobia, misogyny, sexism and discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation and gender identity fall clearly within the scope of hate speech.

For up-to-date CoE action please check the CoE website and the CoE Journal.

Currently chair of the Committee of Ministers, Azerbaijan hosted The Forum of the No Hate Speech Movement (Gabala, 1-5 October). It will also host the First Global Forum on Youth Policies to review the significance and importance of the UN plan of action on youth (Baku, 28-30 October). Co-organised by the UN Special Envoy on Youth, UNESCO, UNDP and the CoE Youth Department, the Global Forum will include some 700 participants: governmental representatives, youth representatives and experts. Laurence Hermand and Hanan Bihi will represent the CDEJ and CCJ at the forum, which will also be attended by 5 members of the Advisory Council and by representatives of ERYICA and EYCA.

In their decision on the situation in Ukraine taken on 17 September, the Ministers' Deputies welcomed the Minsk Protocol signed on 5 September 2014 and called on all parties to strictly respect and fully implement all twelve principles of the Protocol without delay.

On 29 September, the second Václav Havel Human Rights Prize was awarded to Azerbaijani human rights defender Anar Mammadli. The Václav Havel Human Rights Prize is awarded each year by the Parliamentary Assembly, in partnership with the Václav Havel Library and the Charta 77 Foundation, to reward outstanding civil society action in defence of human rights in Europe and beyond.

In her opening speech on 29 September at the PACE autumn part-session, President Anne Brasseur stated "Human rights must be above political agendas and national specificities".

During this session the CoE's Youth Department staged a Living Library (see box above) and on 1 October, AC member Emanuel Alfranseder participated in the presentation of a report on "student mobility" (Rapporteur Mr Christian Barilaro) to which the AC had contributed.

Other themes discussed during this session include: Counteraction to manifestations of neo-Nazism; Women's rights and prospects for Euro-Mediterranean cooperation; Good governance and enhanced quality in education; Raising the status of vocational education and training; The alternatives to immigration detention of children.

In addition to Recommendation 2052 \(2014\) (see box above) the following documents were among those adopted during this part-session: Resolution 2014 \(2014\) on Raising the status of vocational education and training; Recommendation 2015 \(2014\) and Resolution 2013 \(2014\) on Good governance and enhanced quality in education.

Addressing the PACE as part of its annual debate on the activities of the OECD, Secretary General Mr Gurría said that the economic crisis had exacerbated rising inequality and fuelled a social crisis leading to distrust in governments and institutions. He warned parliamentarians that “the danger of a lost generation remains very real”.

A Joint Hearing (PACE Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination and the CoE Committee of Experts on the rights of people with disabilities (DECS-RPD)) entitled “One of us? The right of persons with disabilities to live in the community” was organised on 2 October with the participation of Deputy Secretary General Gabriella Battaini-Dragnoni, the Commission for Human Rights, Nils Muižnieks, Karina Chupina, Senior trainer for the European Youth Centre, former President of the Federation of hard of hearing young people and Professor Gerard Quinn, Director of the Centre for Disability Law and Policy, University of Galway, Ireland. (2) Youth Department update

Antje Rothmund took up her duties as Head of the Youth Department on 1 October.

The international expert team carrying out the CoE youth policy review in Serbia made a second visit to Serbia on 7-13 September. The report of the youth policy review in Greece, carried out in 2013 will be presented to the CMJ at their meeting in November 2014. Prof. Howard Williamson coordinated both country reviews.

An expert team will be visiting Romania to carry out a second phase review in 2015. Albania has requested the CoE’s assistance to establish its new national Action Plan for Youth.

Other member states wishing to benefit from the CoE youth policy reviews over the next few years are invited to come forward.

The bureaus of the CDEJ and the CCJ met on 17-19 September at the EYCS. The plenary meetings of the CDEJ, CMJ and CCJ will be held in Strasbourg on 12-14 November. The CCJ meeting will be preceded (11 November afternoon) by a preparatory meeting organised by the YFJ for all the 30 CCJ members. The Conference of International Non-governmental Organisations of the Council of Europe appointed Ms Anne Kraus (CISV-Luxembourg) to represent it on the Advisory Council on Youth. She replaces Mr Israel Mensah (Office internationale de l'enseignement catholique). Many thanks to Israel for his valuable contributions to the meetings of the Advisory Council in the past.

A consultation with Ukrainian youth organisations and the Ministry of Youth and Sports of Ukraine was held on the occasion of the Compass All-Ukrainian Forum held in Kyiv on 9-10 September, during which the Ukrainian version of Compass was presented to youth and human rights organisations. Jean-Christophe Bas, Director of Democratic Citizenship and Participation held talks with Minister of Youth and Sport Dmytro Bulatov, about the role and priorities of cooperation with the CoE in the youth field. In the consultation meeting on 10 September, youth organisations stressed the need to include young people from all regions of Ukraine, to focus on conflict transformation and intercultural dialogue in Ukraine, to strengthen local youth participation policies and the No Hate Speech Movement in Ukraine. As a follow-up, a training course on human rights education and conflict transformation will be held in Lviv in November. A study visit of Ukrainian youth leaders to Strasbourg has also been planned for December.

A first visit to the Destelheide Youth Centre in Belgium will be carried out on 29-30 October within the Council of Europe's Quality Label for youth centres programme. A mid-term visit to the Euromed Youth Centre in Adrasan, Turkey will be held on 17-20 November. The 6th Platform will be hosted next year by Ecocenter "Radulovacki" in Serbia.

The 3rd edition of the Strasbourg World Forum for Democracy "From participation to influence: can youth revitalise democracy?" will take place in Strasbourg, 3-5 November 2014. The online platform for discussing and suggesting topics for the Forum's "unconferences" is now open! The Forum is an annual gathering of leaders, opinion-makers, civil society activists, representatives of business, academia, media and professional groups to debate key challenges for democracies worldwide.

The insights gathered during the World Forum will inform the work of the CoE and its numerous partners in the field of democracy and democratic governance.

The EYF is contributing to the Council of Europe's Gender Equality Strategy 2014-2017 (www.coe.int/equality) by promoting the integration of a gender perspective in pilot activities run by youth NGOs with the support of the EYF. The EYF hopes to develop a user-friendly tool for youth NGOs on how to integrate a gender perspective in youth activities and asks you to share any relevant material, good practice or tools. The EYF team followed a training course on project management and non-formal education in September.

Following the Joint Council on Youth's decision in March 2014, the EYF continues to give priority to pilot activities on capacity building and conflict transformation developed by Ukrainian NGOs or European NGOs wishing to cooperate with Ukrainian NGOs.

The CoE Partial Agreement on Youth Mobility through the Youth Card together with the European Youth Card Organisation (EYCA) is organising a seminar on "Inclusive Online Engagement for young people to support youth mobility and active citizenship" on 11 November in the EYCS. Applications should be sent in by 10 October [more]. The Seminar will be followed by a meeting of the Partial Agreement's Board of Co-ordination.

Activities held in September included:

EU-CoE youth partnership

The new website of the EU-CoE youth partnership was launched on 3 July.

Recent activities included:

- Expert seminar related to the mapping of barriers to social inclusion for young people in vulnerable situations (EYCS, 30 September – 2 October)

Forthcoming partnership activities include:

- Youth policy seminar in Eastern Europe and South Caucasus on youth participation (Chisinau, Moldova, 14-16 October).
- Conference on the role of youth work in supporting young people in vulnerable situations (Malta, 25-28 November).

The PEYR (Pool of European Youth Researchers) is being renewed.

Staff

A warm welcome to Paschalio Georgiadou who joined the European Youth Foundation team until December. Paschalio will be working mainly on the 2014 World Forum for Democracy and the NGOs registration to the EYF.

In the EU-CoE Youth Partnership team Philipp Boetzelen has moved from the Council of Europe Liaison Office in Brussels to Strasbourg. Davide Capecci, former Director of ERYICA, took up a position in the CoE Liaison Office in Brussels on 29 September.

(3) Council of Europe

On 25-26 September the CoE, together with the City of Málaga and the University of Málaga, organised a Conference on how to tackle recruitment by terrorist and organised crime groups. The conference, made-up of judges, prosecutors, policy makers and other terrorism experts, has also been addressing a range of issues, including radicalisation and recruitment in prisons and ways of stopping the funding of terror campaigns.

The Commissioner for Human Rights' 2nd Quarterly Activity Report for 2014 published on 17 September, records his Comment made in June, entitled "Youth human rights at risk during the crisis". On 30 September he called on European countries to share responsibility and embrace solidarity to more efficiently deal with growing migratory pressure: Europe Wake Up! On 2 October he stated in his Human Rights comment that "Like all children, LGBTI children are entitled to enjoy human rights and require a safe environment in order to participate fully in society."

The overarching theme of the 27th session of the Congress (14 to 16 October 2014) will be "Empowering youth: a shared responsibility for cities and regions". Youth has been a common theme in the Congress's activities in 2014. In cooperation with the European Youth Foundation and the Youth Department, one young person per national delegation has been invited to take part in the session. AC members Liam Preston and Christian Scharling will participate. A Twitter hashtag: #youthsession2014 has been created to share ideas. During the session a ticker tape will relay messages (in English and French only). Users are invited to respect CoE values when making messages.

The 10th meeting of the Executive Committee of the North-South Centre was held in Strasbourg on 26 September. AC member Sergio Belfor represented the CMJ at this meeting. Efforts continue to attract new accessions.

The 16th Ministerial Conference of the Pompidou Group will be held on 19-20 November in Strasbourg. The main theme will be “New generations – challenges for existing drug policies” and statements will be made on new generations (young people); new forms of addiction and new challenges and opportunities from the Internet. The European Prevention Prize 2014 will be awarded on that occasion. At the Conference on “Reducing Drug Demand - Improving Human Life” (Kyiv, 11-12 September) a road map for action was unanimously adopted by the participants. Most debated topics were the continuation of harm reduction measures in times of crisis, drug treatment services in prisons and community as well as effective drug prevention for youth. The conference was organised by the Pompidou Group, UNODC and the Ukrainian State Service for Drug Control with the support of civil society organisations. Drug policy experts participated in a study on gender differences concerning the non-medical use of prescription drugs which was launched by the Pompidou Group with the support of the Italian Anti-Drugs Department in Rome on 22 September.

(4) Other news

On 10 September Tibor Navracsics, former Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs and Trade, was appointed European Commissioner for Education, Culture, Youth and Citizenship. In his mission letter, President Jean-Claude Juncker asked him to focus on (inter alia): Contributing to the jobs, growth and investment package to be presented within the first three months of [our] mandate; Promoting culture as a catalyst for innovation, by maximising the sector's contribution to jobs and growth, particularly among the young; Promoting excellence and networking among European universities, with action such as the U-Multirank platform to compare and choose universities, and supporting the mobility of students, through

ERASMUS+; Contributing to reinforcing the “knowledge triangle” between education, business and research; Supporting the work of the Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs, Skills and Labour Mobility on youth employment, the development of skills and the strengthening of lifelong learning and paying particular attention to reaching out to the beneficiaries of activities organised through the “Europe for Citizens” programme and ERASMUS+, as well as in the context of the traineeship programme organised by the Commission.
