COMPOSITION ▼
MEMBERS: Governments of member States are invited to designate one or more representatives of the highest possible rank in the field of Roma and Traveller issues. The Council of Europe will bear the travel and subsistence expenses of one representative each from 26 member States designated by the CDADI according to a method, which shall have due regard to geographical representation, periodic rotation of member States and the size of the Roma and Traveller population. Each member of the Committee shall have one vote. Where a government designates more than one member, only one of them is entitled to take part in the voting.
PARTICIPANTS: The following may send representatives, without the right to vote and at the charge of their corresponding administrative budgets: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe; - Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe; - European Court of Human Rights; - Commissioner for Human Rights of the Council of Europe; - Conference of INGOs of the Council of Europe; - Council of Europe Development Bank (CEB); - European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI); - Advisory Committee on the Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities (AC-FCNM); - Committee of Experts of the European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages (COMEX); - Committees or other bodies of the Council of Europe engaged in related work, as appropriate.

¹ The term "Roma and Travellers" is used at the Council of Europe to encompass the wide diversity of the groups covered by the work of the Council of Europe in this field: on the one hand a) Roma, Sinti/Manush, Calé, Kaale, Romanichals, Boyash/Rudari; b) Balkan Egyptians (Egyptians and Ashkali); c) Eastern groups (Dom, Lom and Abdal); and, on the other hand, groups such as Travellers, Yenish, and the populations designated under the administrative term "Gens du voyage", as well as persons who identify themselves as Gypsies. The present is an explanatory footnote, not a definition of Roma and/or Travellers.

² These terms of reference are approved for the first biennial period 2022-2023. For the second biennial period 2024-2025, they are approved on a provisional basis, subject to confirmation upon the adoption of the budget for 2024-2025.

WORKING METHODS ▼

Plenary meetings ▼
	Members incl. Chair	Meetings per year	Days per meeting
2022	48	2		2
2023	48	2		2
2024	48	2		2
2025	48	2		2

The rules of procedure of the Committee are governed by Resolution CM/Res(2021)3 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.

In addition, the following provisions shall apply:

The Chair of ADI-ROM will be invited to attend the meetings of the CDADI and its Bureau to inform them on progress with its work.

The ADI-ROM will form small thematic groups to analyse and evaluate specific issues identified by the Committee by means of exchanges of information and experiences (reporting) and thematic visits. Each thematic group is composed of one expert from a member State wishing to benefit from the experience of other member States (“requesting country”) and up to four experts from member States wishing to share their experience in this area (“partner country”). Experts of the thematic groups can be ADI-ROM members of the countries concerned or experts appointed by the ADI-ROM. The requesting country invites the partner countries’ experts and the Secretariat to visit the country for a maximum of two and half days. With prior approval of the thematic group, representatives of European Institutions and agencies and of other international organisations having participant or observer status with the ADI-ROM, and members of the Secretariat of other relevant Council of Europe bodies, may participate in thematic visits at their own expense. The thematic reports resulting from those visits are discussed and adopted in ADI-ROM meetings and submitted to the CDADI for decision on the follow-up. The ADI-ROM will carry out at least two such peer-reviews per year.

The members of each thematic group will be invited to attend the ADI-ROM meeting at which their report is discussed. The travel and subsistence expenses related to their participation in that meeting will be reimbursed.

If an ADI-ROM meeting takes place in a member State, it may be also be used for a thematic visit.

The ADI-ROM will appoint from amongst its members a Gender Equality Rapporteur and a Children’s rights Rapporteur.

In derogation from Article 6 of Appendix 1 to Resolution CM/Res(2021)3, and in conformity with Article 17 of the same appendix, in addition to the official working languages of the Organisation (English, French), interpretation will be provided into the Romani language and the agenda translated into Romani for regular meetings whenever necessary and within the limits of available budgetary appropriations. Any adopted pertinent texts (e.g. Recommendations adopted by the Committee of Ministers) will also be translated into Romani.
