B. EXPECTED DELIVERABLES

Background of the Project

The Council of Europe is currently implementing the Projects "Enhancing Equality and Non-Discrimination in Georgia", and "Combating hate speech in Georgia" which aim at strengthening the promotion and protection of the rights of vulnerable groups and minorities in Georgia against discrimination, hate speech and hate crime.

The overall objective of the project "Enhancing Equality and Non-Discrimination in Georgia" is to improve protection from and provide effective redress for discrimination and hate crimes affecting people from diverse ethnic, religious groups, and the LGBTI community.

The specific objectives are:

1. Justice system representatives provide more effective responses and victim support to hate crimes, including those targeting ethnic and religious minorities and LGBTI persons, and use collected data to propose evidence-based policies.
2. Representatives of the private sector, civil society organisations and resource officers use awareness raising tools effectively to advocate for the rights of minority groups and available redress mechanisms.

The project will work with the following partners: the Ministry of Internal Affairs, the Academy of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, the Prosecutor's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the Special Investigation Service, Courts, civil society organisations, the Coalition for Equality, the private sector, media and the Office of Resource Officers of Educational Institutions.

The project "Combating Hate Speech in Georgia" supports the coordination among state authorities, legal and law enforcement professionals, civil society, etc., to adapt domestic frameworks in line with international standards and apply those standards to prevent and combat hate speech in Georgia.

The project's overall objective is to improve co-operation among stakeholders to prevent and combat hate speech in Georgia, including better protection of vulnerable groups and more accessible redress mechanisms in line with European standards and best practices.

The specific objectives are:

1. Georgian institutions respond to hate speech in a systemic and co-ordinated manner involving relevant non-state stakeholders based on shared awareness of the dangers posed by hate speech and the effect it has on those targeted by it;
2. Local authorities and non-state stakeholders build common understanding of hate speech, as well of the dangers it poses those targeted in vulnerable situations and are able to respond to it through prevention and protection measures.

The project will work with the following partners: the Ministry of Internal Affairs, the Prosecutor's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the State Ministry for Reconciliation and Civic Equality, Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sports, including the Office of Resource Officers of Educational Institutions, local authorities and municipalities, civil society organisations.

The Council of Europe is looking for a maximum of 10 (Ten) provider(s) (provided enough tenders meet the criteria indicated below) in order to support the implementation of the project with a particular expertise on human rights, human rights education and civic activism.

The Contract may potentially represent a higher or lower number of activities, depending on the evolving needs of the Organisation.

The total amount of the object of present tender shall not exceed 55,000 Euros tax exclusive for the whole duration of the Framework Contract. This information does not constitute any sort of contractual commitment or obligation on the part of the Council of Europe.

Scope of the Framework Contract

The present tendering procedure aims to select Provider(s) to support the implementation of the project:

Types of Units	Maximum number of Providers to be selected
Needs assessment and strategy development for capacity building within law enforcement entities and other partners from the lens of behavioural change.	10

Throughout the duration of the Framework Contract, pre-selected Providers may be asked to:

- Carry out context analysis and needs assessment;
- Develop intervention strategies based on scientific methods and practices;
- Draft assessment report;
- Carry out capacity building activities;
- Carry out evaluation (assessment of results);
- Develop guiding materials for capacity building/ based on assessment.

The above list is not considered exhaustive. The Council reserves the right to request deliverables not explicitly mentioned in the above list of expected services but related to the field of expertise object of the present Framework Contract for the lot concerned.

In terms of quality requirements, the pre-selected Service Providers must ensure, inter alia, that:

- The services are provided to the highest professional/academic standard;
- Any specific instructions given by the Council – whenever this is the case – are followed.

If contracted by the Council of Europe, the deliverables shall be provided personally by the persons identified in the offer of the Provider whose CVs have been presented to the Council of Europe (See section E. below), in accordance with the terms as provided in the present Tender File and Act of Engagement.

In addition to the orders requested on as needed basis, the Provider shall keep regular communication with the Council to ensure continuing exchange of information relevant to the project implementation. This involves, among others, to inform the Council as soon as it becomes aware, during the execution of the Contract, of any initiatives and/or adopted laws and regulations, policies, strategies or action plans or any other development related to the object of the Contract (see more on general obligations of the Provider in Article 3.1.2 of the Legal Conditions in the Act of Engagement).

Unless otherwise agreed with the Council, written documents produced by the Provider shall be in English (see more on requirements for written documents in Articles 3.2.2 and 3.2.3 of the Legal Conditions in the Act of Engagement).

C. FEES

Tenderers are invited to indicate their fees, by completing and sending the table of fees, as attached in Section A to the Act of Engagement. These fees are final and not subject to review.

The Council will indicate on each Order Form (see Section D below) the global fee corresponding to each deliverable, calculated on the basis of the unit fees, as agreed by this Contract.

D. HOW WILL THIS FRAMEWORK CONTRACT WORK? (ORDERING PROCEDURE)

Once the selection procedure is completed, you will be informed accordingly. Deliverables will then be delivered on the basis of Order Forms submitted by the Council to the selected Provider (s), by post or electronically, on an as needed basis (there is therefore no obligation to order on the part of the Council).

Pooling

For each Order, the Council will choose from the pool of pre-selected tenderers for the relevant lot the Provider who demonstrably offers best value for money for its requirement when assessed – for the Order concerned – against the criteria of:

- quality (including as appropriate: capability, expertise, past performance, availability of resources and proposed methods of undertaking the work);
- availability (including, without limitation, capacity to meet required deadlines and, where relevant, geographical location); and
- price.

Each time an Order Form is sent, the selected Provider undertakes to take all the necessary measures to send it signed to the Council within 2 (two) working days after its reception. If a Provider is unable to take an Order or if no reply is given on his behalf within that deadline, the Council may call on another Provider using the same criteria, and so on until a suitable Provider is contracted.

Providers subject to VAT

The Provider, if subject to VAT, shall also send, together with each signed Form, a quote² (Pro Forma invoice) in line with the indications specified on each Order Form, and including:

- the Service Provider's name and address;
- its VAT number;
- the full list of services;
- the fee per type of deliverables (in the currency indicated on the Act of Engagement, tax exclusive);
- the total amount per type of deliverables (in the currency indicated on the Act of Engagement, tax exclusive);
- the total amount (in the currency indicated on the Act of Engagement), tax exclusive, the applicable VAT rate, the amount of VAT and the amount VAT inclusive.

Signature of orders

An Order Form is considered to be legally binding when the Order, signed by the Provider, is approved by the Council, by displaying a Council's Purchase Order number on the Order, as well as by signing and stamping the Order concerned. Copy of each approved Order Form shall be sent to the Provider, to the extent possible on the day of its signature.
