Pillar: Rule of Law Programme: Rule of Law based institutions Sub-programme: Independence and efficiency of Justice
MAIN TASKS ▼
Under the authority of the Committee of Ministers, the CCPE, as a consultative body composed exclusively of serving prosecutors (unique in this way at European level), representing the various existing prosecution systems in the 47 member States, as a direct and privileged interlocutor of the prosecutors in member States and of national bodies entrusted with the management of prosecution services, is tasked with fostering the independence, impartiality and competence of prosecutors, through the elaboration of standards and guidance as regards the status and career of prosecutors and effective exercise of prosecutorial profession, bearing in mind the Council of Europe's legal standards, notably Recommendation Rec(2000)19 on the role of public prosecution in the criminal justice system and Recommendation CM/Rec(2012)11 on the role of public prosecutors outside the criminal justice system, the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the findings and recommendations of the relevant monitoring mechanisms. In particular, the CCPE is instructed to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) ensure the follow-up of the relevant decisions taken at the 131st Session of the Committee of Ministers (Hamburg, 21 May 2021),² and in particular contribute to the implementation of the key strategic priorities relating to its specific field of expertise as identified in the Strategic Framework of the Council of Europe, and respond to the respective key findings and challenges set out in the Secretary General's 2021 Report on the state of democracy, human rights and rule of law "A democratic renewal for Europe"; (ii) contribute to the overall preservation and further promotion of relevant European standards related to the rule of law, including in emergency situations, and in particular as regards the independence, impartiality and competence of prosecutors, as well as their status, career and effective exercise of prosecutorial profession by elaborating opinions and other texts, and promoting targeted cooperation and regular exchanges of knowledge, good practices and experiences on issues of common interest in this area; (iii) advise the Committee of Ministers on issues regarding the independence, impartiality and competence of prosecutors, as well as their status, career and exercise of prosecutorial profession and prepare and adopt opinions for the attention of the Committee of Ministers on these issues, taking into consideration existing legal and other policy instruments, the Reports of the Secretary General of the Council of Europe on the State of Democracy, Human Rights and the Rule of Law in Europe and the evolving case law of the European Court of Human Rights; (iv) hold regular exchanges and contribute to national and international events, highlighting and promoting the implementation of relevant standards of the Council of Europe, CCPE opinions and other texts and the case law of the European Court of Human Rights, and encouraging partnerships in the prosecutorial field involving prosecution services, prosecutors and prosecutors' associations; (v) promote and follow the implementation of the standards that it has prepared, and where appropriate, contribute to reviews of the implementation of relevant Committee of Ministers' recommendations; (vi) hold an exchange of views annually in order to evaluate its activities and advise the Committee of Ministers and the Secretary General on future priorities in its sector, including possible new activities and those that might be discontinued; (vii) take due account of the following mainstreamed perspectives in the performance of its tasks: gender, youth, children's rights, rights of persons with disabilities, and Roma and Traveller³ issues; (viii) where relevant, contribute to building cohesive societies and to strengthening the role and meaningful participation of civil society in its work; (ix) contribute to the achievement of, and review progress towards, the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular with regards to Goal 5: Gender Equality and Goal 16: Peace, Justice and Strong institutions.

¹ These terms of reference are approved for the first biennial period 2022-2023. For the second biennial period 2024-2025, they are approved on a provisional basis, subject to confirmation upon the adoption of the budget for 2024-2025.
