COUNCIL OF EUROPE

CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Purchase of hotel's accommodation in Reykjavik, Iceland

Contract N°

The Council of Europe is currently implementing the joint European Union – Council of Europe project "Implementing the Barnahus Model in Croatia". This Project is implemented by the Council of Europe's Children's Rights Division in close co-operation with the Croatian Ministry of Justice, Public Administration and Digital Transformation and the European Commission's Directorate General for Structural Reform Support (EC/DG REFORM) during the period 1 September 2023 to 28 February 2026.

The general objective of the project is to support Croatia in its efforts to design, develop and implement reforms in the field of child-friendly justice and protection of children's rights. More specifically, the project aims to improve the access and quality of the justice system for child victims and witnesses of violence in Croatia, to ensure that undue delays in the treatment of such cases is diminished, and that all children who are victims and witnesses of sexual violence benefit from a child-friendly access to justice. This will be achieved through the implementation of the Barnahus Model which is the leading European model for a child-friendly multidisciplinary and interagency response to child sexual exploitation and abuse.

In that context, a study visit will take place in Reykjavik, Iceland from 23 to 26 September 2024. The Council of Europe is looking for a provider for the provision of hotel's accommodation (including breakfast) for 9 people for three nights (from 23 to 26 September 2024) depending on travelers' arrival and return time, transportation services from 23 to 26 September 2024 and dinner on 23, 24 and 25 September 2024. (See Section A of the Act of Engagement).
