UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION 1325 «WOMEN, PEACE AND SECURITY»

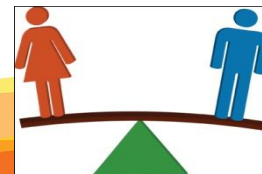

MORE WOMEN

MORE PEACE

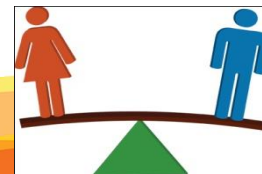

UNSCR 1325

- ▶ In 2000 – UN SECURITY COUNCIL – RESOLUTION 1325
- ▶ «Women, Peace and Security»
- ▶ Women should be participants in the making and keeping of peace
- ▶ Local, national and international arenas
- ▶ Addresses the impact of war on women and girls
- ▶ It is the first time that the Security Council focuses on women as agents

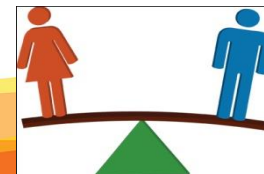

UNSCR 1325

The resolution is significant not only for recognizing the disproportionate and gender-specific impact of conflict on women and girls in the prevention and resolution of conflicts but also for highlighting the undervalued role of women in peacebuilding and post-conflict reconstruction.

UNSCR 1325- PILLARS

- ▶ Participation
- ▶ Protection
- ▶ Prevention
- ▶ Relief and Recovery

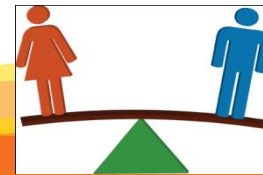

UNSCR 1325

- As we know, the Council of Europe Gender Equality Strategy does not include reference to UNSCR 1325, as it does not have WPS as a focus area.
- Recommendation CM/Rec(2010)10 of the Committee of Ministers to member states refers on the role of women and men in conflict prevention and resolution and in peace building

The Commissioner for Gender Equality initially informed all relevant Ministries/Departments, political/trade unions and non-governmental organisations as well as civil society in general about starting the process of drafting the National Action Plan, inviting them to actively participate and contribute to its shaping .

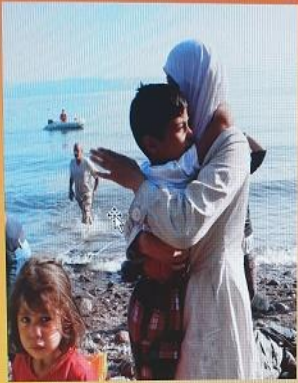

CYPRUS FIRST NAP ON UNSCR 1325

Through a meaningful dialogue we have exchanged views/suggestions on the implementation of UNSCR 1325 in our country. Several of the contributions have been incorporated into the draft NAP of the Republic of Cyprus.
