

CDDH comments on Parliamentary Assembly Recommendation 2043(2014) - "Urgent need to deal with new failures to co-operate with the European Court of Human Rights"

CDDH: 81st meeting - 24/27 June 2014 CDDH(2014)R81

1. The Steering Committee for Human Rights (CDDH) takes note of Parliamentary Assembly Recommendation 2043\(2014\) on the 'urgent need co-operate with the European Court of Human Rights' and Resolution CM/Res(2010)25 on member States' individual application to the European Court of Human Rights, which called upon the member States to "take prompt and effective measures to deal with the failures to co-operate with the Court so as to ensure compliance with their obligations under the relevant provisions of the Convention". It, notably in its report on interim measures under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court, which reiterated that "member States should be reminded that it is for States Parties to comply with an indication of interim measures made under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court and that non-compliance normally implies a violation of Article 34 of the Convention".

2. The CDDH notes that certain of the failures to respect indications of interim measures occurred after the adoption of Committee of Ministers' Recommendation CM/Res(2010)25 and that some involved action that is illegal under domestic law. This underlines the need for the Committee of Ministers and the member States to continue searching for adequate responses to such incidents, as implied by paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Parliamentary Assembly's recommendation on the implementation of the relevant measures. The CDDH also notes the Guidelines on eradicating impunity for serious human rights violations, where appropriate on account of the nature of the actions occurring at the domestic level.²

3. Finally, the CDDH notes the Assembly's applications in the context of which interim measures have been indicated, and recalls its own recommendation in this sense made in its 2013 Report.
