9:15-10:15 Setting the scene

The nexus between human rights and business responsibilities to protect the environment in international human rights law

Drawing on the international framework on human rights and business this session will discuss the different models for state and business responsibilities to protect the environment.

- Environment and the ECHR: How does the European Court of Human Rights address environmental matters in its case-law?
- What are the states' human rights obligations relating to the enjoyment of a safe, clean, healthy and sustainable environment?
- What are the environmental aspects of business responsibilities regarding human rights? What is the scope of such responsibilities?

What is the concrete business' environmental responsibility today and in the near future? What can the Council of Europe contribute?

Companies usually implement separate components or join selected initiatives regarding environmental aspects of corporate social responsibility. While allowing businesses to present their good practices and initiatives aimed at increasing environmental sustainability and ensuring respect for human rights, this session will ask:

- Is such a voluntary and fragmentary approach enough to create a higher level of social consciousness in the business world to act in favour of environmental integrity?
- How can the Council of Europe support businesses to better understand, identify and address links between human rights and environment-related risks and strengthen their capacities to contribute positively to the efforts to address global environmental challenges?
- How can Council of Europe co-operation programmes help member States incentivise human rights and environmentally - conscious and responsible business practices?
