THE ORGANISERS

The Enter! Youth Week is organised by the Youth Department of the Council of Europe. The Youth Department elaborates guidelines for the development of youth policies at local, national and European levels. It provides funding for international youth activities through the European Youth Foundation. The European Youth Centres of Strasbourg and Budapest are home to educational programmes for multipliers in youth organisations and youth work practitioners promoting youth participation, youth work, human rights education and intercultural dialogue. The Youth Department is part of the Directorate of Democratic Participation, Directorate General of Democracy.

The Enter! Youth Week is organised under the responsibility of the Joint Council on Youth, a co-managed body that brings together youth representatives, members of the Advisory Council on Youth, and representatives of national governments, members of the European Steering Committee for Youth. The Joint Council takes the decisions on the youth sector's priorities, programmes and budget, including the Youth for Democracy programme, which the week is part of.

The Joint Council on Youth appointed the Preparatory Group of the week, composed of:

- Thierry Dufour and Dean Reš (European Steering Committee for Youth)
- Larissa Nanning and Nato Antia (Advisory Council on Youth)
- Michael Piccinino (European Youth Forum)
- Virginia Mangematin and Marie-Agnès Pierrot (Ministry of National Education and Youth, France)
- Clément Dolisi (City of Strasbourg).

The Preparatory Group is responsible for the preparation, programme and outputs of the week. The programme is implemented by the Education and Training Division of the Youth Department, with support of facilitators involved in the Enter! project.

ABOUT THE WEEK

The Enter! Youth Week associates young people and youth workers to review the process of the implementation of the recommendation by the member states and other partners. Organised at the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the Council of Europe, in the framework of the Presidency of France of the Committee of Ministers, the week should also be an example of young people's participation in the Council of Europe's mission and work. Youth workers and young people will share experiences concerning access to social rights from a local point of view.

Objectives

- To contribute to the review of the implementation of the Enter! Recommendation with inputs from young people and youth workers based on their life realities and their expectations regarding access to social rights
- To discuss and highlight the role of youth work and local youth policies in promoting young people's access to social rights
- To celebrate the 70th anniversary of the Council of Europe, highlighting young people's commitment and contributions to human rights and democracy, in the framework of the priorities of the French Presidency of the Council of Europe
- To develop proposals for short and long-term action to advance young people's access to social rights by the Council of Europe and by national and local authorities
- To provide an intercultural learning experience based on creativity and interaction with young people in the city of Strasbourg.

Outputs

- Conclusions and proposals regarding the review of the Enter! recommendation and the realities of access to social for young people from disadvantaged neighbourhoods
- A Message to the Council of Europe at the occasion of the 70th anniversary containing the participants expectations and wishes
- A film/video report of the week
- A written report/publication with the highlights of the week.
